

How to get to the Kingsgate Community Centre

Bus: Buse routes 139, 328 and C11 go via West End Lane. Bus routes 16, 32, 189, 316, 332, 632 and 98 go via Kilburn High Road.

London Underground: The nearest tube stations are Kilburn and Brondesbury. From either station turn right when exiting and take the left-hand turn into Messina Avenue. Turn left on Kingsgate Road and the Kingsgate Community Centre will be on your right.

West Hampstead station can also be used although the walk is longer and is uphill on the way back to the station. From West Hampstead tube turn left when exiting the station, take the second right into Hemstal Road and turn left into Kingsgate Road. The Kingsgate Community Centre will be on your left.

London Overground: West Hampstead overground, on the North London line, is the nearest to the Kingsgate Community Centre. When exiting the station turn tight and then follow the directions above from West Hampstead tube which is very close to the overground station.

Parking: There is no parking available and parking in the local area is mostly reserved for residents.
